

Systemic Mastocytosis: Discover the New Way of Learning

A TRAINING PORTAL ON ADVANCED MASTOCYTOSIS PATHOLOGY

On behalf of Novartis Oncology, we are delighted to invite you to participate in a webinar entitled Systemic Mastocytosis: Discover the New Way of Learning.

We hope that this webinar will provide an engaging and informative opportunity for you to further your knowledge of systemic mastocytosis and its diagnosis. The main objectives of the meeting are to:

- Provide an update on the diagnosis and classification of systemic mastocytosis
- Present an overview of the 'Systemic Mastocytosis Training Portal'
- Demonstrate how to make best use of the case studies

If you are interested and available to participate in the webinar, the details for the session and the registration link are below:
